

High Studies in Project and Interior Design Management

Project and Interior Design Management

▲ PROJECT AND INTERIOR DESIGN MANAGEMENT

The interior designer or decorator is qualified to design projects, manage and supervise interior design projects as well as carrying out and coordinating projects designed by professionals with higher qualifications.

This course prepares professionals qualified to carry out projects of installations, refurbishments related to decoration and the reconditioning of interior spaces, as well as to supervise interior building remodelling works.

I'm going to work as...

- An interior design project manager.
- A freelancer working for particulars or with architecture studios.
- A CAD 2D draftsman and a 3D infographics designer.
